Programme objectives

This programme provides a thorough understanding of equality and diversity, helping to introduce new recruits to the subject or act as a refresher for current employees.

1. Understand what equality and diversity mean and how they affect you.
2. Recognise the barriers that can prevent equality from being realised such as prejudice, stereotyping, discrimination, victimisation and harassment.
3. Learn key legislation and both employers' and employees' responsibilities in relation to it.
4. Understand the Equality Act 2010 and 'protected characteristics' that form the basis of the law.

Why choose us?

“ I find the EduCare systems very effective. I have physically attended courses before and have gained much less knowledge from them. The courses are very easy to follow and cause you to reflect on the key points in the test phase. ”
